CEYLON TEA TRAILS is a collection of five restored plantation bungalows with shimmering lake views, in the heart of Sri Lanka's tea region. You soon surrender to a pace of life from a bygone era, where afternoon tea is a must, followed by cocktails at sunset on the veranda and an evening stroll along the water as the mist rolls in. The feel is less of a hotel and more like a private members' club with your very own butler, always on hand to offer a gin and tonic before you even know you want one. Prices from £573 per room per night, on an all-inclusive basis, based on two sharing. resplendentceylon.com/teatrails
